EAGLE

NAME

Jack Keller

A foolish end, to a foolish dream
The unmarked victory of thoughtless effort
I stumbled on every task;
And I failed. This was yesterday.

The dejection of my being reveals
I am an outcast of my hopes.
And I wonder if there will always
Be a downfall. This is today.

Suddenly, I am enlightened.
A divine voice of thought
Cries "One cannot do what many must achieve."
It is then I realize that—WE are tomorrow.

Calbert DuVall

Preparing us for the world's demands in society is an essential part of our training as a high school student. Our teachers are looked to for guidance and understanding in difficult moments. Wayne Central is fortunate to have such a dedicated and respected teacher as a member of its faculty. She has taken a deep and sincere interest in each student she has had in her classroom. We are sure that not only the yearbook staff but also many others have recognized her qualities. The 1970 Yearbook is proud to dedicate this book to Mrs. Margaret Bebernitz.

Mrs. Bebernitz was born in Conifer, New York an Adirondack lumbering town. She attended Mannsville High School and graduated from Houghton College in 1939. She has done some library work at the University of Buffalo. Her first job was Principal and English teacher at Star Lake, New York in the Adirondacks. She has also taught in Vestal, Victor, and Brighton.

Mrs. Bebernitz presently resides at Walworth Road in Ontario with her husband Arno and two children Craig and Arno Jr. She also has two married children, Carol Whittemore of Lake Placid, New York and Richard Bebernitz of Ontario, New York.

Her extra interests include her flower garden and baking, and freezing foods. She also is the advisor of National Honor Society. She is a member of East Williamson Free Methodist Church and at one time was the Primary Superintendent there.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

Dear Wayne Eagle Staff,

Thank you for the space you gave me to express my appreciation to the faculty and to all students of Wayne Central. It was a tremendous year and in my entire life I will never forget all the fun and different experiences I had. Your friendliness and helpfulness made me soon feel like a real Wayne student. I think I can say that I have learned much about the American life, and I hope that you have learned something of my country.

Of course many thanks go to Mom, Dad, and Diane Riker, whom, with everything they did for me, helped to make my stay pleasant too.

Like many exchange students before me I hope to return to America some day. So "Tot weerziens" meaning so long in Dutch.

Wikje Hiddema.

Wikje Hiddema

Bennie Roer

To Wayne Central High School:

In these lines I want to thank Wayne Central for have given me the opportunity to be a student in its school. To its principal and teachers, for the cordiality with which they treated me, and to Wayne Central's students for the friendship and sympathy they offered me. Helping to make more comfortable my stay here in Wayne Central High School.

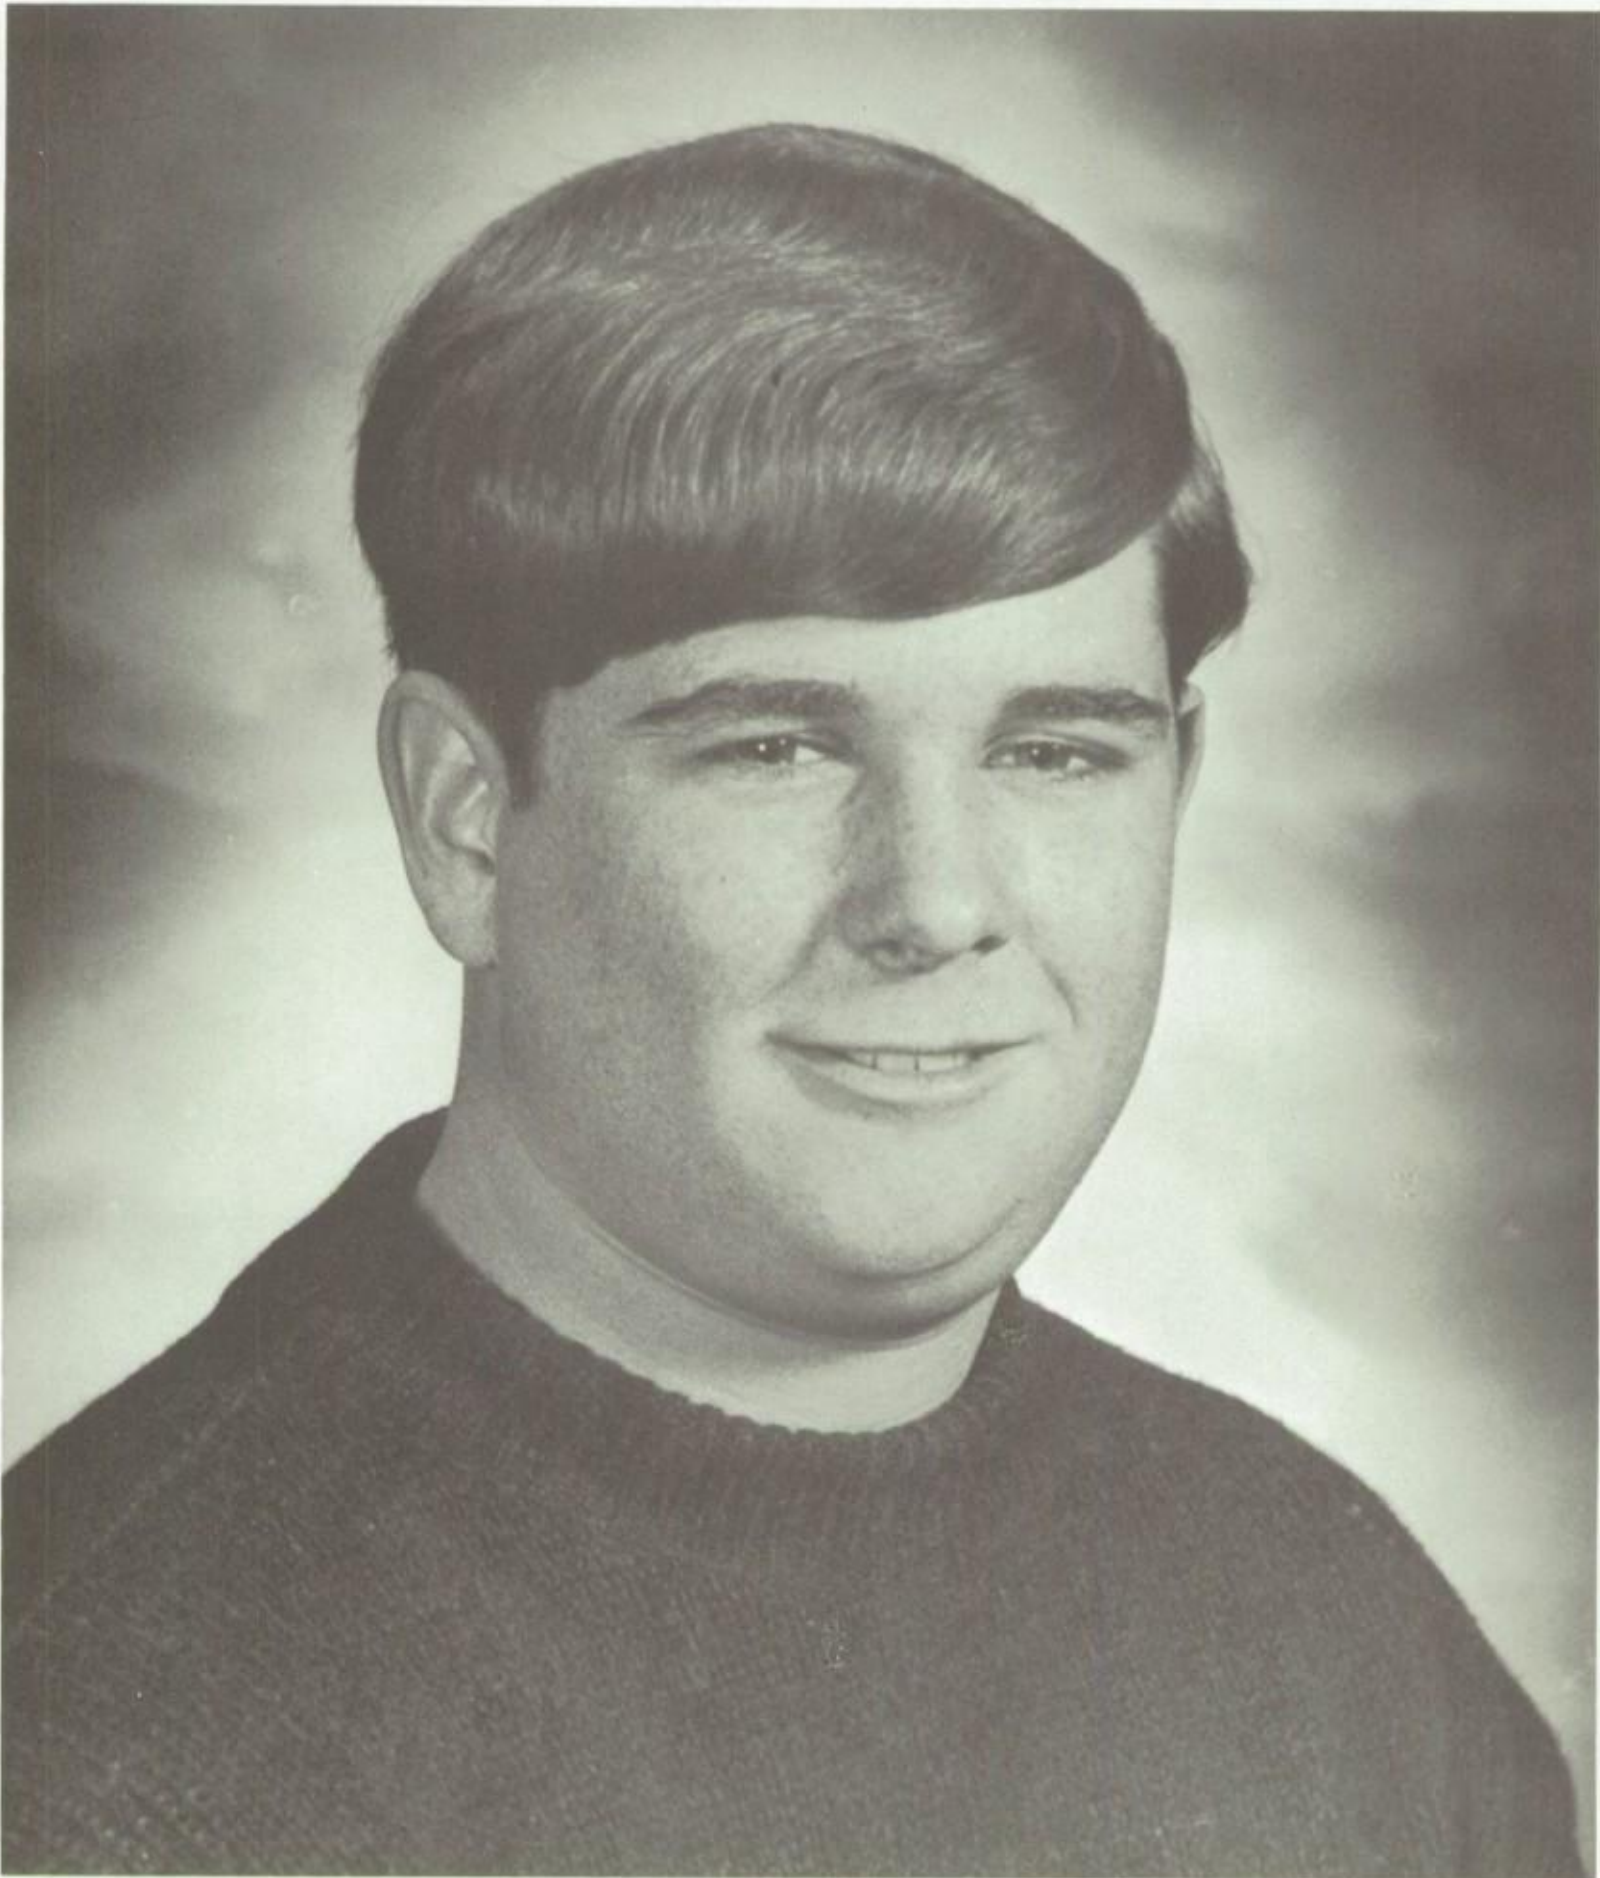

To finish, I want to specially thank Mr. Parker Bridges, the school guide, for how he advised and understood me, being always at the first and hardest moments I was in school my guide, and more yet my friends.

Sincerely, Benny Roer

Bernie LeViner, our foreign exchange student.

IN MEMORY OF STEPHEN SCHIMMERHORN

To the member of our class who will not participate with us on commencement night, we respectfully dedicate this page. From his first day of school until his junior year, he was a most familiar figure at Wayne Central.

To his teachers he was a student of ability and ambition, although, as many of his friends will remember, his interests did not end there. This was evidenced by his enthusiastic and active participation in baseball and band. To his fellow students he was a classmate with a friendly smile. To anyone privileged to be his friend, he can never be forgotten. We sincerely bestow on him the honor to which none has better claim. May we, throughout our lives, follow the example set by Stephen Schimmerhorn whose memory shall continue to live on.

SENIOR STUDIES

Kevin Rowell: I'm not the greatest, I'm the double greatest. Not only do I knock 'em out, I pick the round.

Bill Porterfield: Don't be afraid to ask dumb questions, they're easier to handle than dumb mistakes.

Sandy Westerman: Beauty is as beauty does.

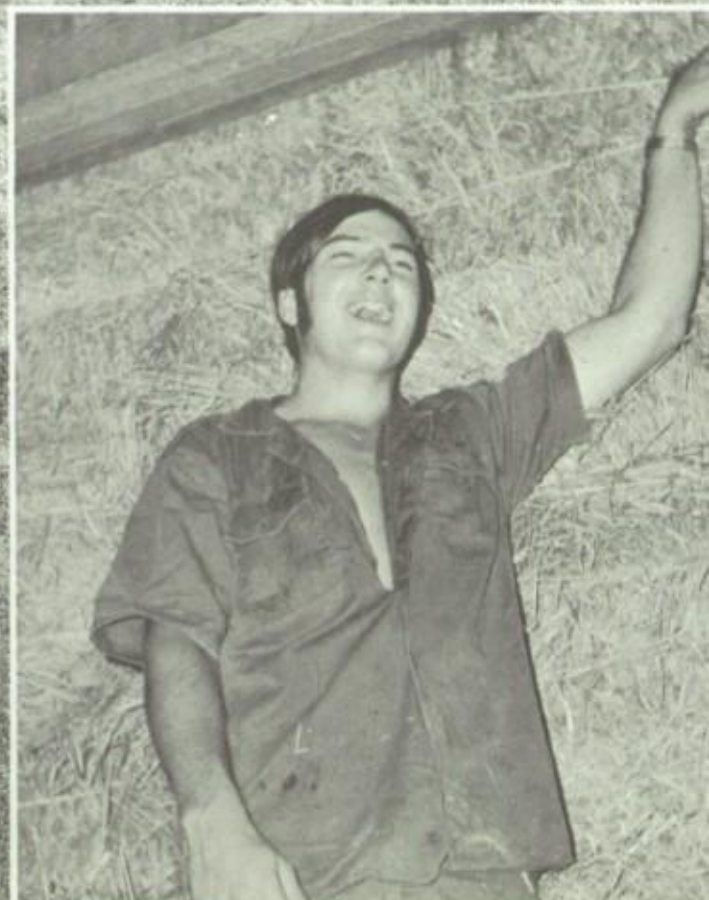

Ida Mae Wheeler: A pinch of probability is worth a pound of perhaps.

Carol Reynolds: It's easier to suffer in silence if you know someone is watching you.

Dave Stites: Let us leave hurry to the slaves.

Dean Schreiber: Here goes another case of Monday-nucleosis.

Don Eaton: Time passes, yet does he care.

Kathy Duell: Her enthusiasm is infectious.

Phil Haak: The world is all wrong, save you and me—and sometimes I wonder about you.

Pauline Ludolf: Ideas are easy-its getting them done that's hard.

Bernie LeViner: Always a part of the problem.

Chris Curnow: If you listen to too much advice you wind up making other people's mistakes.

Herb Raymor: Patience is a great thing, but it never helped a hen lay an egg.

Mike Schneider: Existence was given for action.

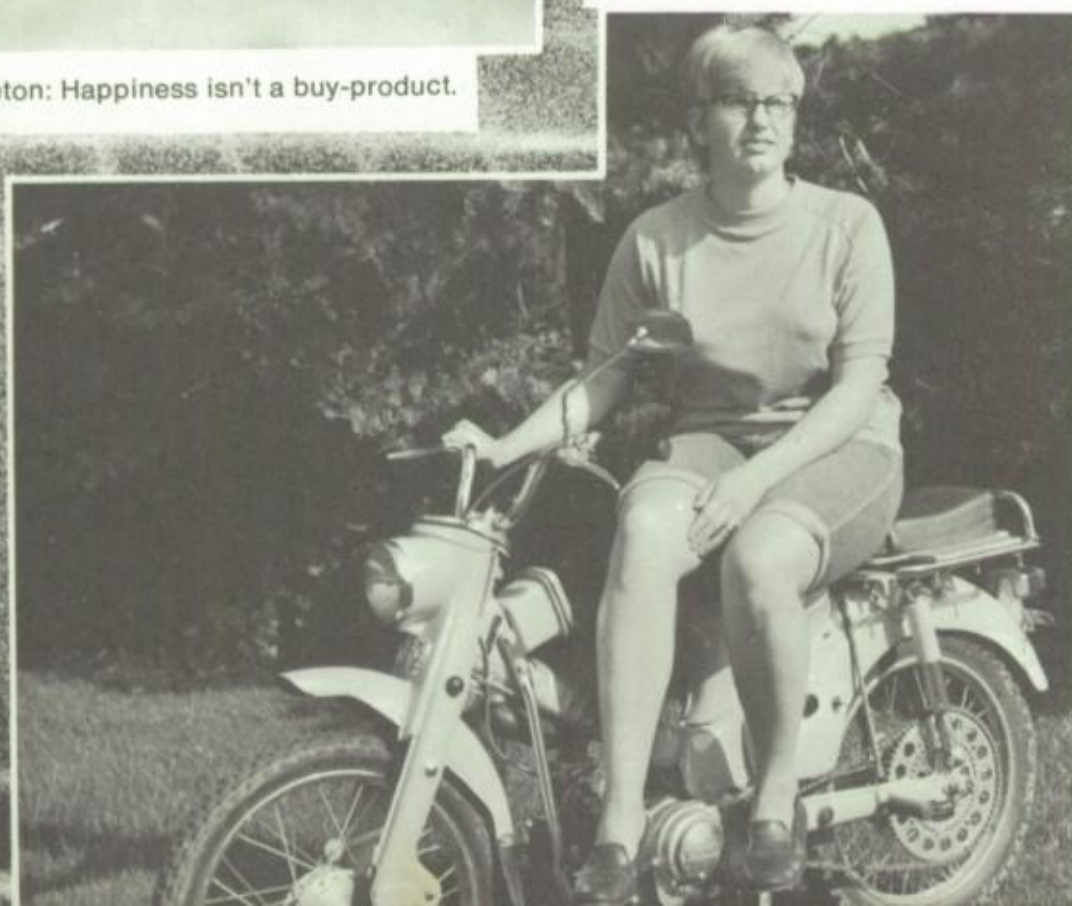

Ruth Appleton: Happiness isn't a buy-product.

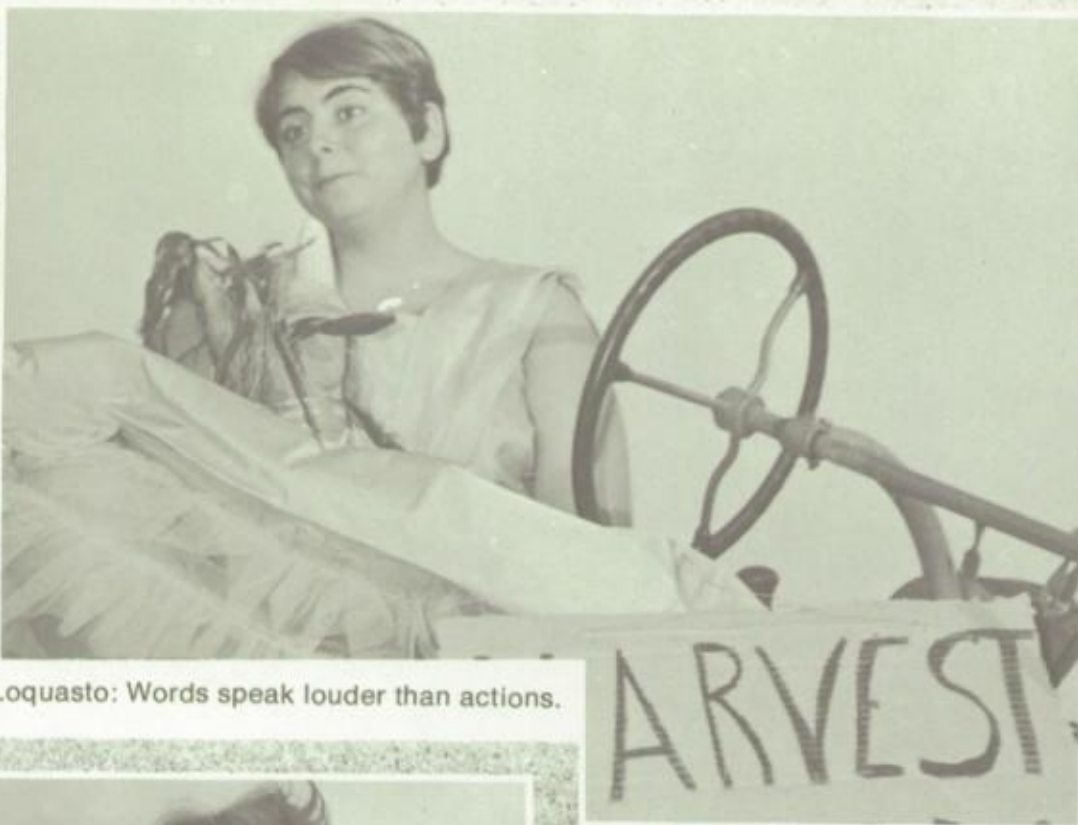

Bob O'Dell: Life is not a spectacle or a feast; it is a predicament.

Dona Wilcox: Only a life lived for others is a life worthwhile.

Kathy Richeson: I don't think winning is the most important thing, I think winning is the only thing.

Belinda Loquasto: Words speak louder than actions.

Tom Gentile: Sports is his way of life.

Cheryl Hack: Feminine intuition is nonsensical, illogical, emotional, ridiculous and practically fool-proof.

Randy Emison: What you don't owe, won't hurt you.

Wikje Hiddema: Her friendship comes across the waters to warm the hearts of many.

Gerald Hillegeer: The man who knows what he is talking about can afford to use words everyone understands.

George Ottenschot: He'll find a way

Ethel McKee: Lady Godiva II

Brian Douglas: love the game beyond the prize

Paul Manktelow: Actions speak louder than words

Gary Fioco: I do not believe in defeat

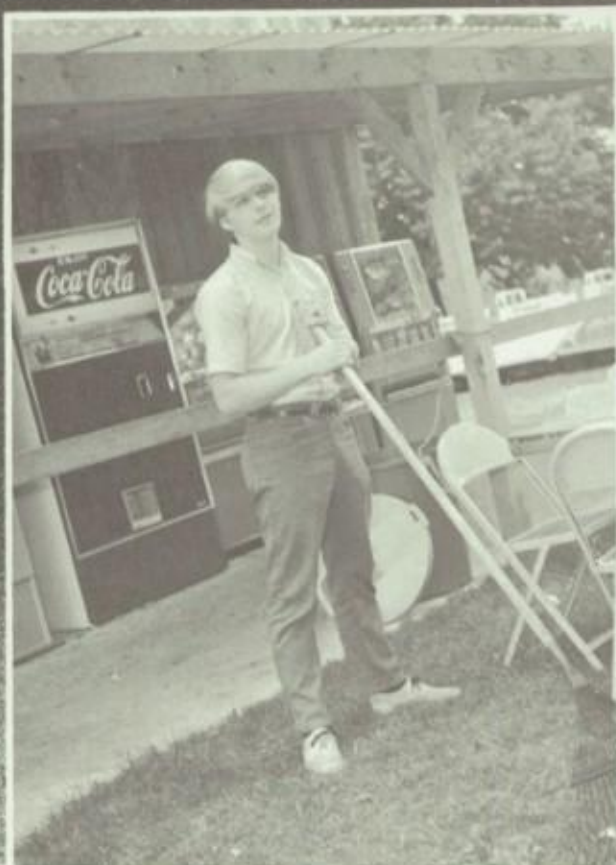

Joanne Marullo: "Funny Girl"

Randy Winkler: Some people don't get mad—they get even

Joan Keymel: Crowding a life does not always enrich it.

Bob Padgham: The best way out is always through.

Roberta Nagel: Just when you think tomorrow will never come, it's yesterday.

Steve Ostertag: Gentleness is a divine trait, and nothing is so gentle as real strength.

Lewis Grace: Before you let yourself go, be sure you can get yourself back.

Kathy Hosier: As if her whole vocation were endless imitation.

Laurie Kunzer: I never read books, it spoils the movies.

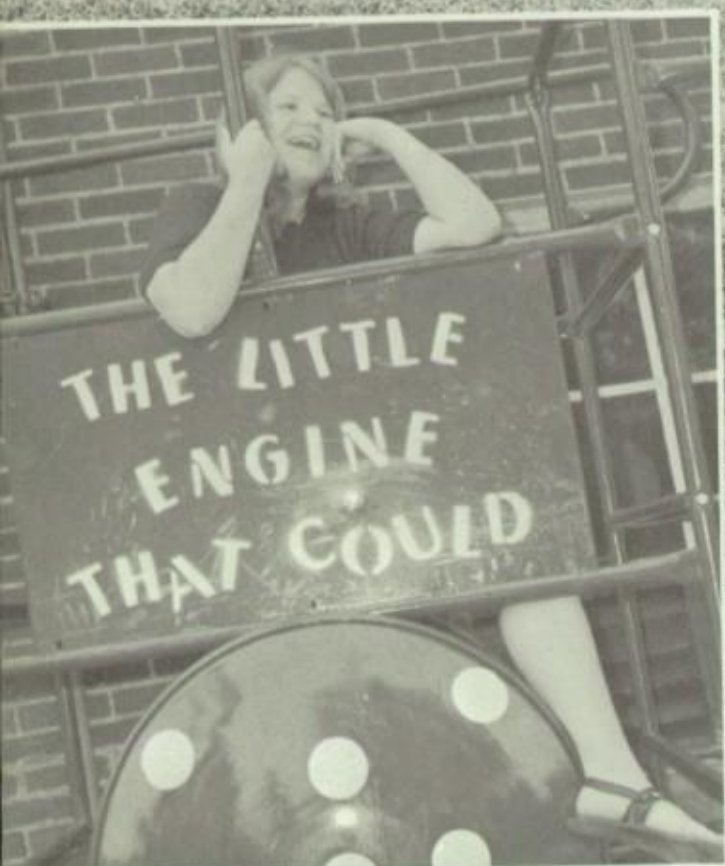

Phil Farley: I never like being hit without striking back.

Dawn Vance: What you are to be, you are now becoming.

Bill Sipple: It is the business of the future to be dangerous.

Karen Youngman: It matters more what's in a woman's face than what's on it.

Carol Enderlin: You can cover a great deal of country in books.

Bob Pringle: Yes judge, I was going 90 m.p.h. but I just finished washing my cycle and I wanted to give it a quick dry.

Linda Doyle: Her sense of humor makes for classroom memories.

Harlan Hilton: In his own little world.

Heidi Weisenreder: Talent is power; tact is skill.

Diane Schultz: Quietness and a great disposition will take her far.

Linda Graves: In each and every way, she is a person fun and gay.

Lauretta Luke: The useful and the beautiful are never separated.

Jean Ellis: A woman never admits she has lost an argument, she just thinks she has failed.

Darrell Fitzgerald: What's done is done—for about five minutes.

Andrea Poletis: I have no time to be in a hurry.

Julie Trunzo: Welcome always smiles and farewell goes out sighing.

Bennie Fretwell: Morale is when your hands and feet keep on working when your head says it can't be done.

Daniel Syron: A good book is the best of friends, the same today and forever.

Ruth Weaver: Chant the beauty of the good.

Bruce Carey: You are either on the way or in the way.

Karen Morse: They say it's not good to be alone, but sometimes it's a relief.

Gordon Bolton: Here is another bead on the string of confusion.

John Cass: A thing done right today means no trouble tomorrow.

Elsie Carpenter: Life is what you make it.

Bob Adams: A duce-quad is man's best friend.

Lee Eaton: Men are most apt to believe what they least understand.

Ginny Ginegaw: Beauty isn't caused. It is.

Stacy Judd: Charm is the measure for attractious power.

Leif Lindquist: Con- sidering what exper- ience costs, it should be the best teacher.

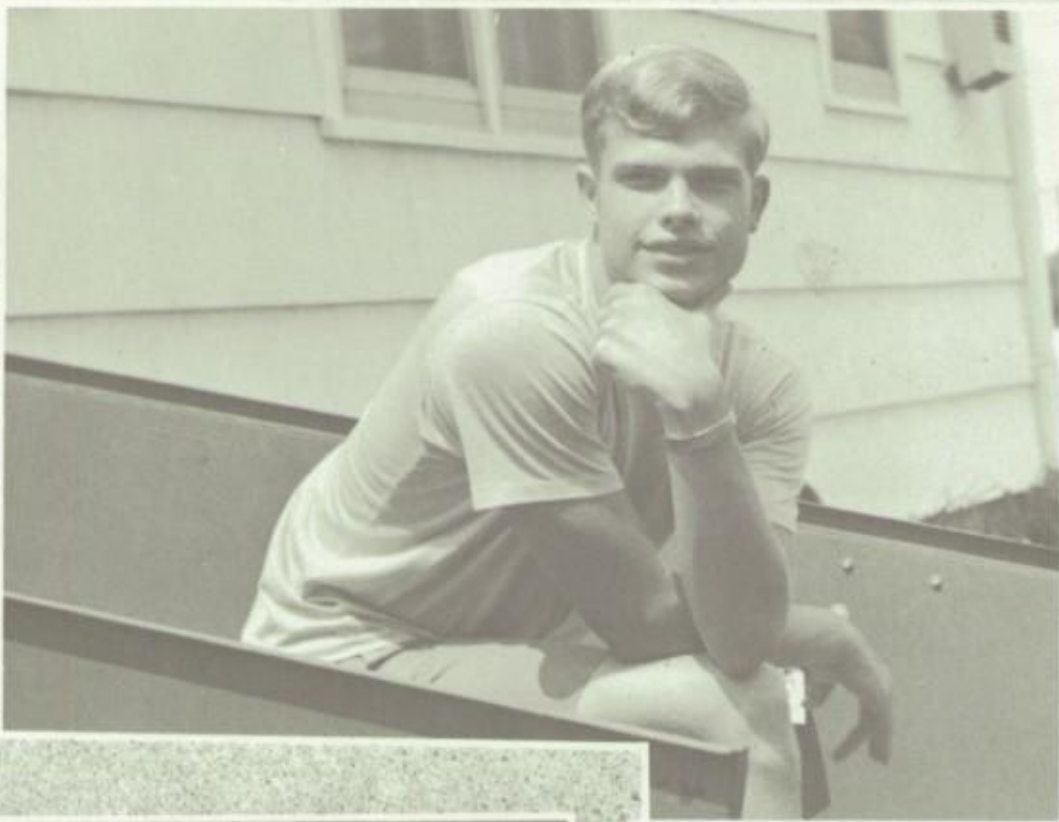

Alice Garland: Remember today is the first day of your life.

Steve Heberle: There's only one thing he lacks as a natural leader— natural followers.

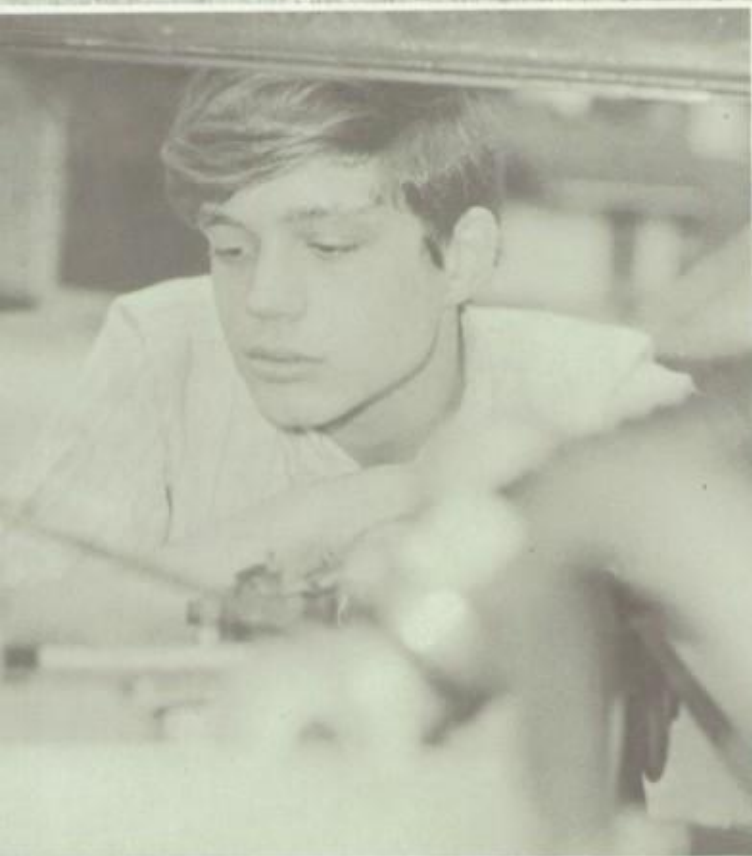

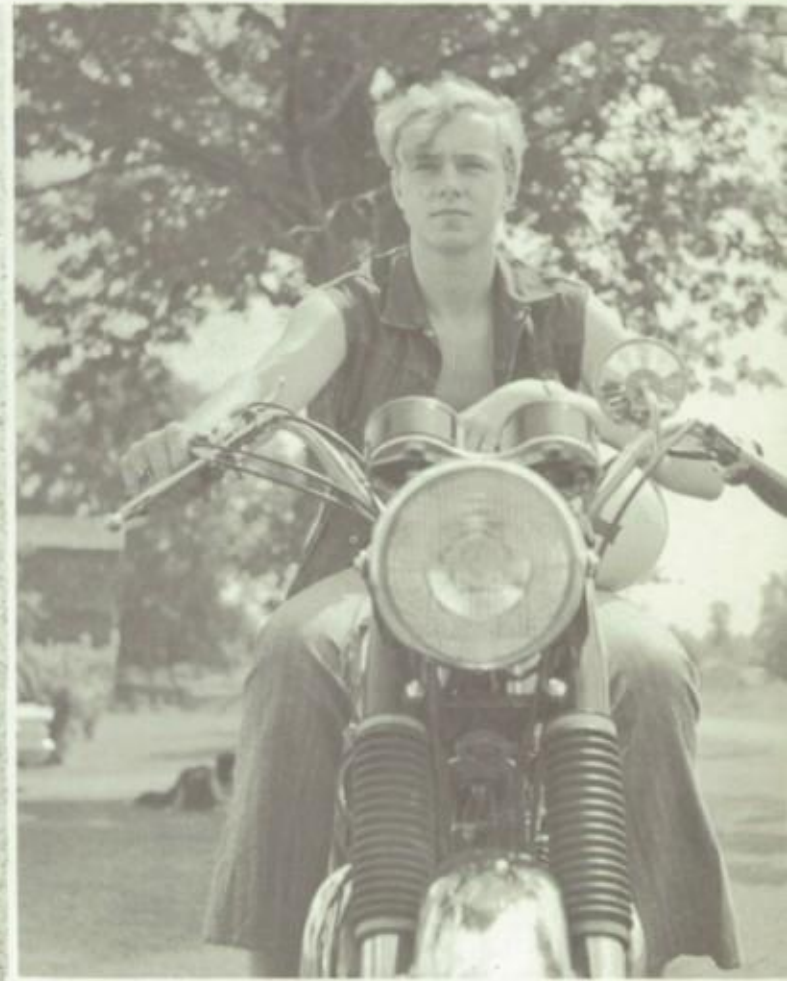

Charles Klein: Genius finds its own road and carries its own lamp.

Paul Sass: Brains and Brawn, Inc.

David Ruffell: Men are never so good or so bad as they imagine themselves.

Dale Ryan: Women are not against you; they are merely for themselves.

Sandra Webber: The dull life is something of the past for her.

Marylee Furber: I like men with soft hearts and sincere thoughts.

Carol Kane: She's always a joy to be with.

Mike Buchiere: Early to bed—this morning.

Guy Barend: A little public scandal is good once in a while—it takes the tension out of the news.

Karen Allen: The ornament of a house is the friends that frequent it.

Michelle Abraham: The trouble with the future is that it usually arrives before we're ready for it.

Jim Ballou: Man is born to live, not to prepare for life.

Nancy Filsinger: The world belongs to the enthusiast who keeps cool.

Leisa Alekinder: I'll be around as long as horses think I'm smarter than they are.

Anthony Molino: It is a mark of genius not to astonish but to be astonished.

Jeanette Pye: She's always willing to lend a helping hand.

Linda Vance: A little smile is as contagious as a yawn.

Vicki DeDee: It is wisdom to believe the heart.

Bernie Nagel: Winning isn't everything but wanting to win is.

Guy VanDerwerken: If you are a man of few words, you won't have to take so many of them back.

Steve VanDerwerken: Success tip: Start at the bottom and wake up.

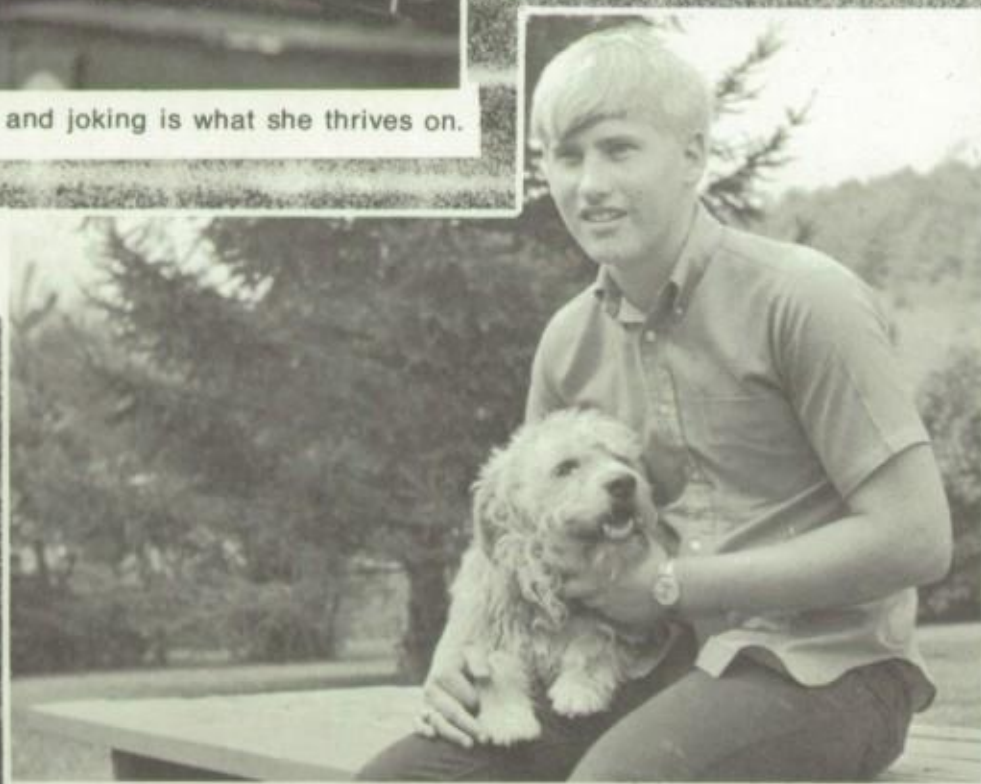

Dave Vanderlee: A brain is no stronger than its weakest think.

Diane Pitts: Giggles and joking is what she thrives on.

Dan Schutt: A lover of sports and life.

Dennis Pollard: Life is made up of interruptions.

Sue Powell: What some artists need is a brush with reality.

Bob Price: Most of us can easily do two things at once, what is impossible is to do one thing at once.

Pat Doyle: Some people are like wheelbarrows, they have to be pushed.

Vaughn Pembroke: Is this crisis worthwhile.

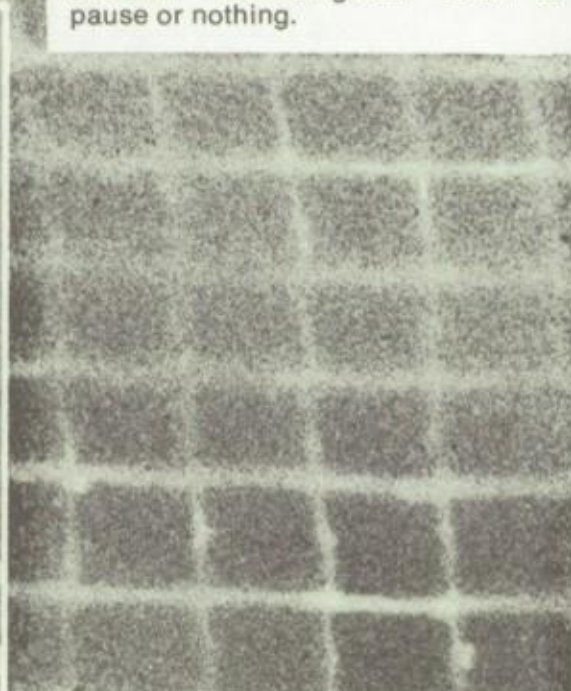

Deborah VanHaneghem: Learn to pause or nothing.

Martha Steamer: Everything gets easier with practice except getting up in the morning.

Claire Tusch: If there is anything worse than a quitter, it is a person who is too afraid to begin.

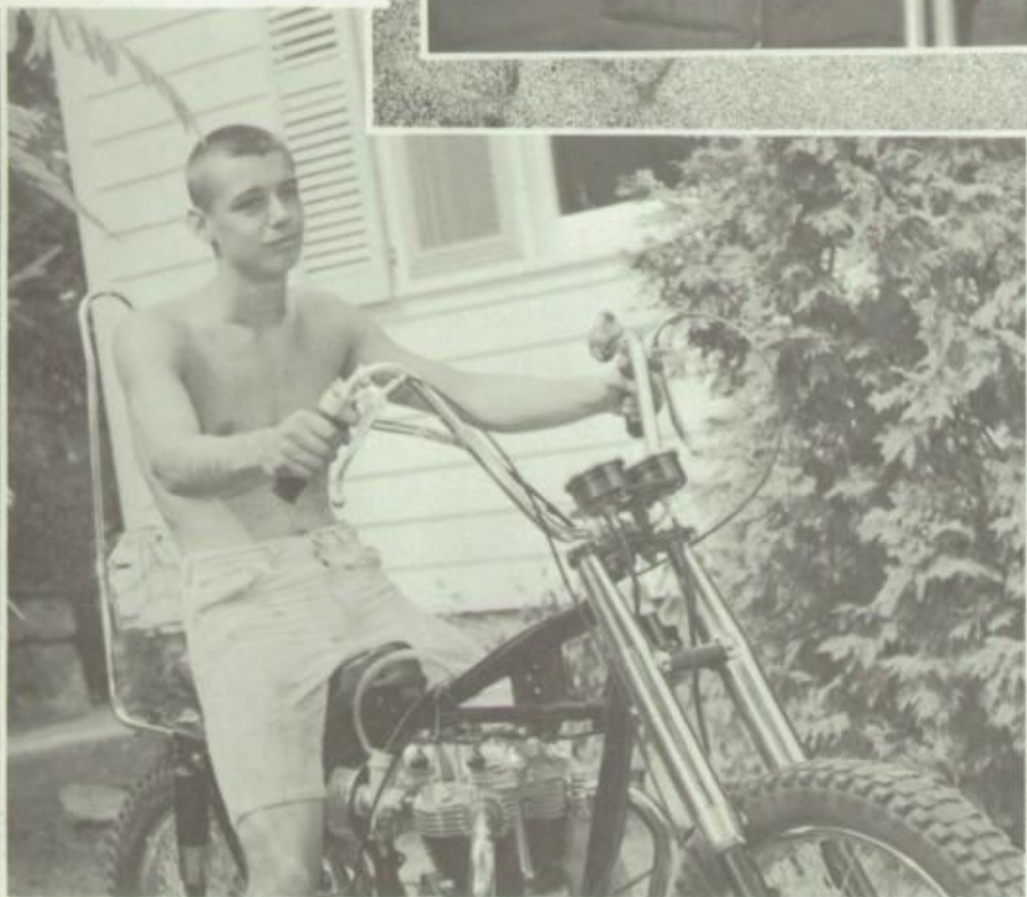

Diane Riker: A woman can look moral and exciting—if she looks like she's putting up a struggle.

Jim Morley: If you aim high you can't shoot your foot off.

Bill Miller: All arguments have two sides, but some have no end.

John Knowlton: People don't plan to fail—they just fail to plan.

Grant Bradshaw: Some teenagers feel that once they pass their drivers test, they should pass everything.

Donna Anderson: Selfishness is a gift of nature; unselfishness is an accomplishment.

John Keeley: No man is really old until his mother stops worrying about him.

Tom Ikewood: The trouble with thee is often me.

Vicky Hamelink: Modern science is still trying to produce a tranquilizer more effective than a few kind words.

Dale Michelson: Tomorrow is often the busiest day of the year.

Donna Fisher: Woman have more imagination than men, we need it to tell them how wonderful they are.

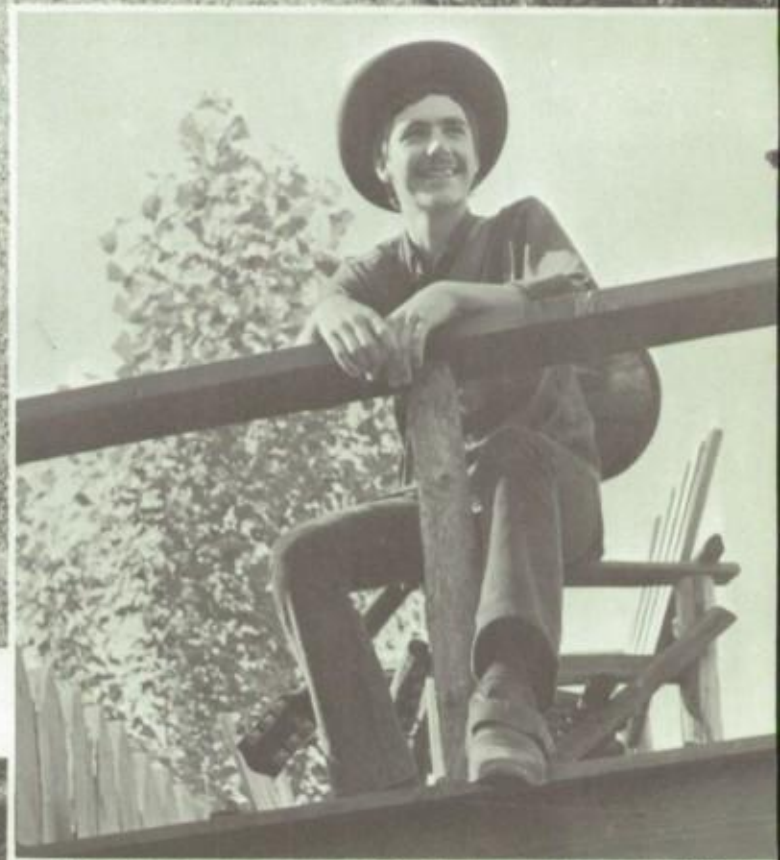

Caroline Cone: It is better to wear out than rust out.

Mary Edwards: Common sense is instinct, and enough of it is genius.

Cal DuVall: Sometimes you think the whole world is failing, and it's only you that's waning.

Terry Spencer: Chaos is a normal condition in his world.

Vaughn Weston: There is only one difference between a madman and me. I am not mad.

Patti Ryan: This world belongs to the energetic.

Leslie Bolender: Only he who attempts the ridiculous, can achieve the impossible.

Becky Wyckoff: Pleasures may be bought but happiness is free.

Andy Sprague: A short pencil is better than a long memory.

Jim Webb: Do you mean to tell me someone noticed my accent.

Mark Davis: Every new generation has a fresh invasion of savages.

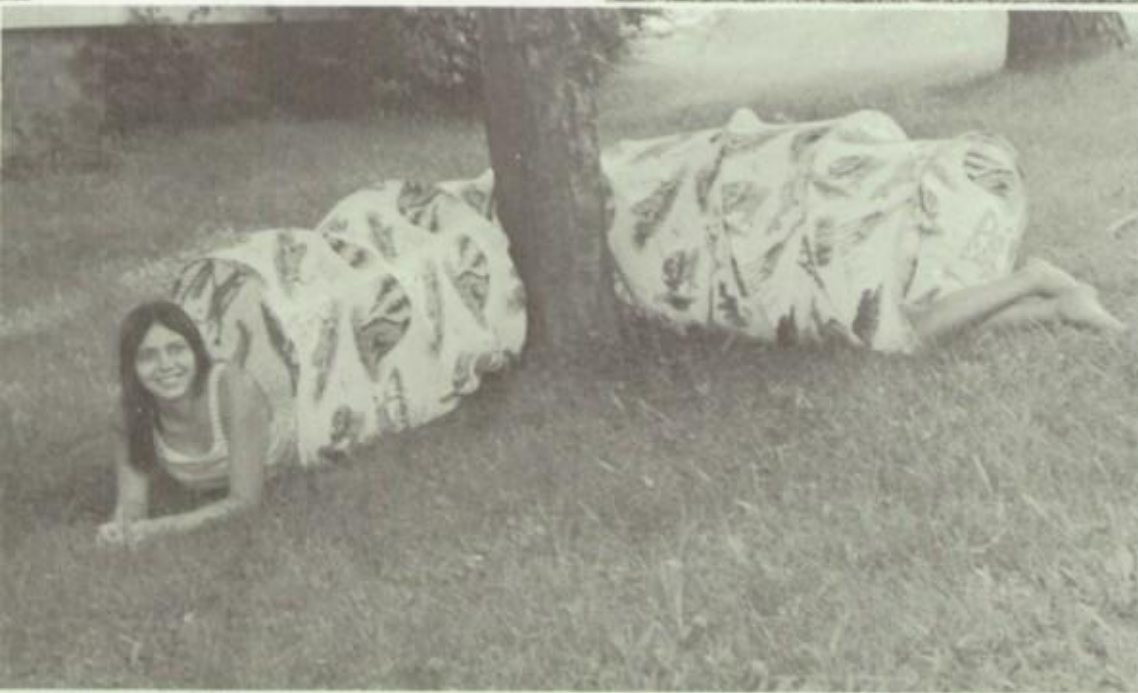

Gary Gropp: His disease of laughter infects everyone.

Bob Fenn: Will is character in action.

Dave Colburn: We see the handwriting on the wall and all we do is criticize the formation of the letters.

Linda Bauer: Life is a picture, paint it well.

Bonnie Crane: Love makes the world turn.

Bonnie Johnson: Intuition is reason in a hurry.

Jane Briggs: Opportunity knocks but once, but temptations lean on the doorbell.

Emma Boswell: She's full of sweet indifference

Guy Carr: To me the charm of an encyclopedia is that it knows and I needn't.

Dale Brandt: When will they find a cure for the common error.

Gail Billings: Some people have tact; others tell the truth.

Gary Begy: Man started out a little lower than the angels and has been getting a little lower ever since.

Marie VanEnwyck: Some like to understand what they believe in; others like to believe in what they understand.

Bruce Bassage: Work!

Reggie Caves: We must constantly build dikes of courage to hold back the flood of fear.

Reggie Brewer: He would even argue Einstein's Theory.

Lyn Bassage: I'm loaded with ambition, somebody pull the trigger.

Judy Beneway: Ideas are funny little things, they don't work unless you do.

Wanda Buys: Friendship and smiles go hand in hand.

The Board of Education congratulates each one of you of the class of 1970 on your fine achievement. You have crossed the first of many of life's plateaus and it is our sincere wish that your future challenges will be as successful.

Mr. Tepper, Superintendent of Schools.

I wish to congratulate not only the yearbook staff and the senior class, but our entire senior high student body and faculty. I trust that this yearbook will reflect, in some measure, a tremendously effective and productive school year which this one has been.

As your superintendent let me share in your pride . . . pride in your school, your administration and in all your achievements of this past year.

Good luck and success to our graduating seniors! Let those who follow in your footsteps continue their work in the fine tradition of leadership and cooperation that you have displayed.

Chester E. Tepper
Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Moshano, Curriculum Coordinator.

Mr. Kearns, Business Manager.

Mr. Palmer, Supervisor of Facilities.

Principals

Mr. Emory Faulks

Dear Class of 1970:

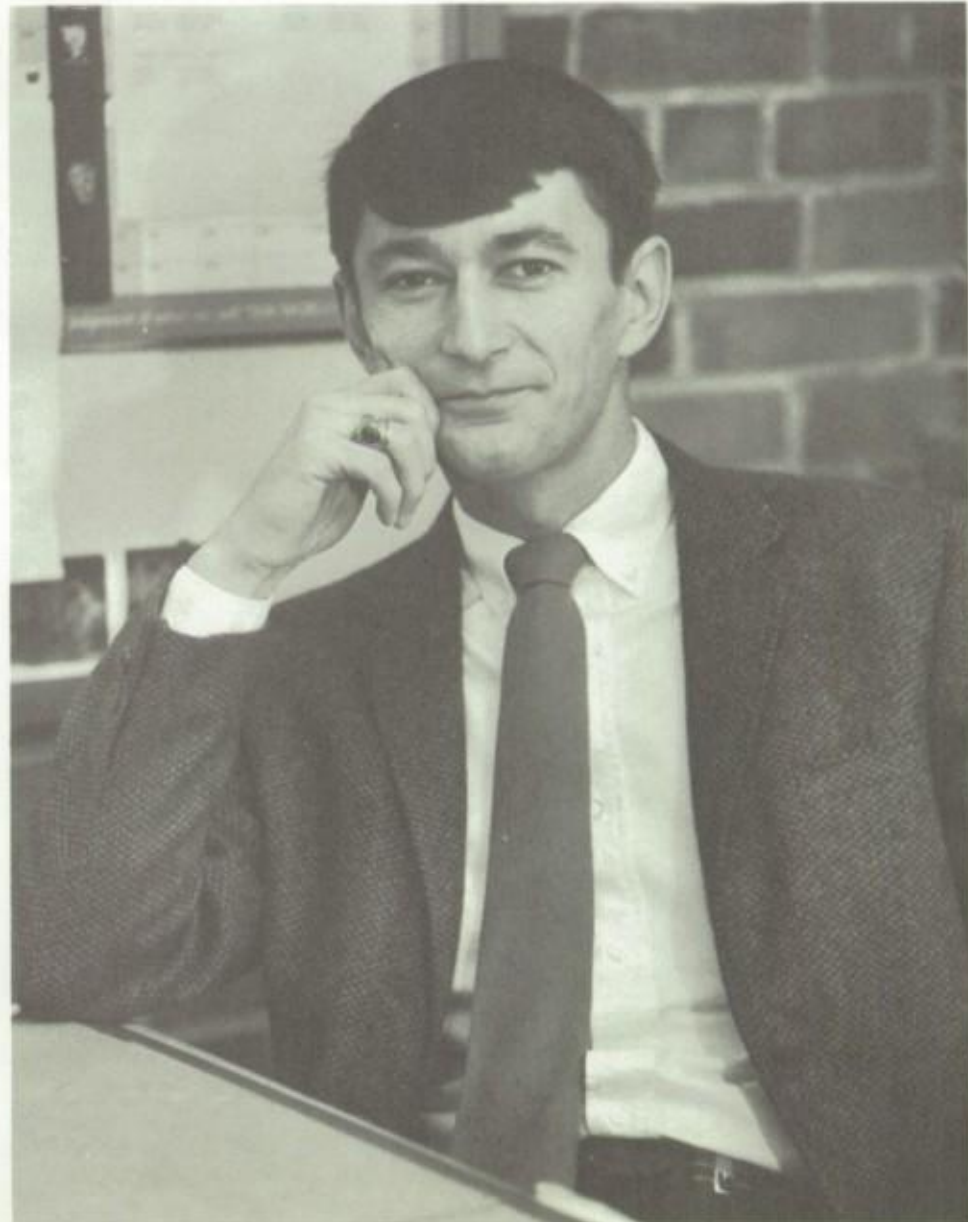

Few beginning principals have been as fortunate as I to begin their work in administration with an outstanding group of seniors such as you have been this year. Your friendliness, your sense of responsibility and your attitude toward our school and community have made me very proud to be your principal. I feel great confidence in the future when I know that young people such as you will be taking your place in our society.

May you have every success in the future. It is my hope that, in the years to come, your experiences during the past four years here at Wayne will have helped to develop you into the type of individual of whom we can point with pride and say, "He was one of ours."

Good Luck!

Emory Faulks, Principal

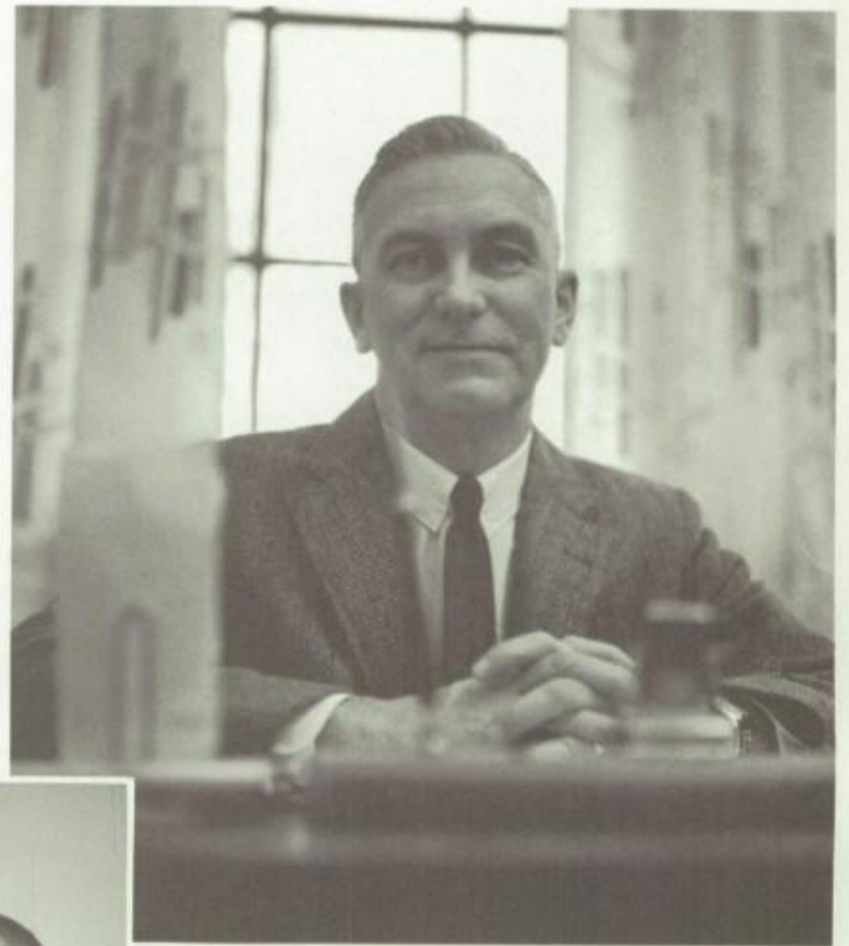

Mr. Ronald Miller
Assistant Principal

OTHER SCHOOL PRINCIPALS

Mr. Knowlton

Ontario Primary Principal
Mrs. Morley

As a high school graduate, you have earned new privileges, but you also have assumed new responsibilities. It is your duty to make the most and best of yourself. It is your duty as a son or daughter, as a member of your local community, as a citizen of the United States and as a member of the human race. Nothing less will bring you the rich rewards you will rightly deserve. Good luck and best wishes.

GUIDANCE

Mr. Patrick Martin

Mr. Parker Bridges

Dear Seniors,

Your teachers and school have done their best to prepare you for the events of the future. When those occasions arise that the challenge seems to great. Think back to the Spirit of the Class of 70 and draw your strength from it.

FACULTY WRITE-UP

FACULTY AND PERSONNEL

At some time during his high school years, each student needs a lending hand. The faculty and personnel play the role of a helping hand.

Every teacher in our faculty devotes many hours of patience and indulgence in the hope of broadening each student's knowledge. Most of the faculty advise clubs and take part in many extra-curricular activities. At the beginning of the year they set a goal, in which they strive even harder to attain as the year progresses. They constantly push forward to prepare the students for the future.

As the center of this preparation, the guidance office serves as an open door to the future. Because of the teachers in this office and their helpful advice, the students are directed toward the faster moving outside world.

The custodians, bus drivers, and cafeteria workers keep the school system together with the various services they perform. A better organized school is due to their services. In the past, present, and near future, they are and will be necessary and important people.

The secretaries manage, also, to keep our school in efficient running order. Eager to help the student body, they are cordial, ready and waiting.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Each underclassman uses the old and used paths of yesterday in making the decisions for today. Tomorrow is the long awaited day when the goal of the senior year is reached.

As new members of the senior high building, the freshmen are looking forward to the tomorrows when they will enter their last year as underclassmen. The freshman year is the stepping stone to the future where the past years of the junior high are pushed behind them into their yesterdays. Leading the freshman class is President, David Greene; Vice President, Nancy Gordon; Secretary, Joan Doyle, and Treasurer, Jamie Buck. The decisions made by these officers will not only influence the class today but also pave the road to the future.

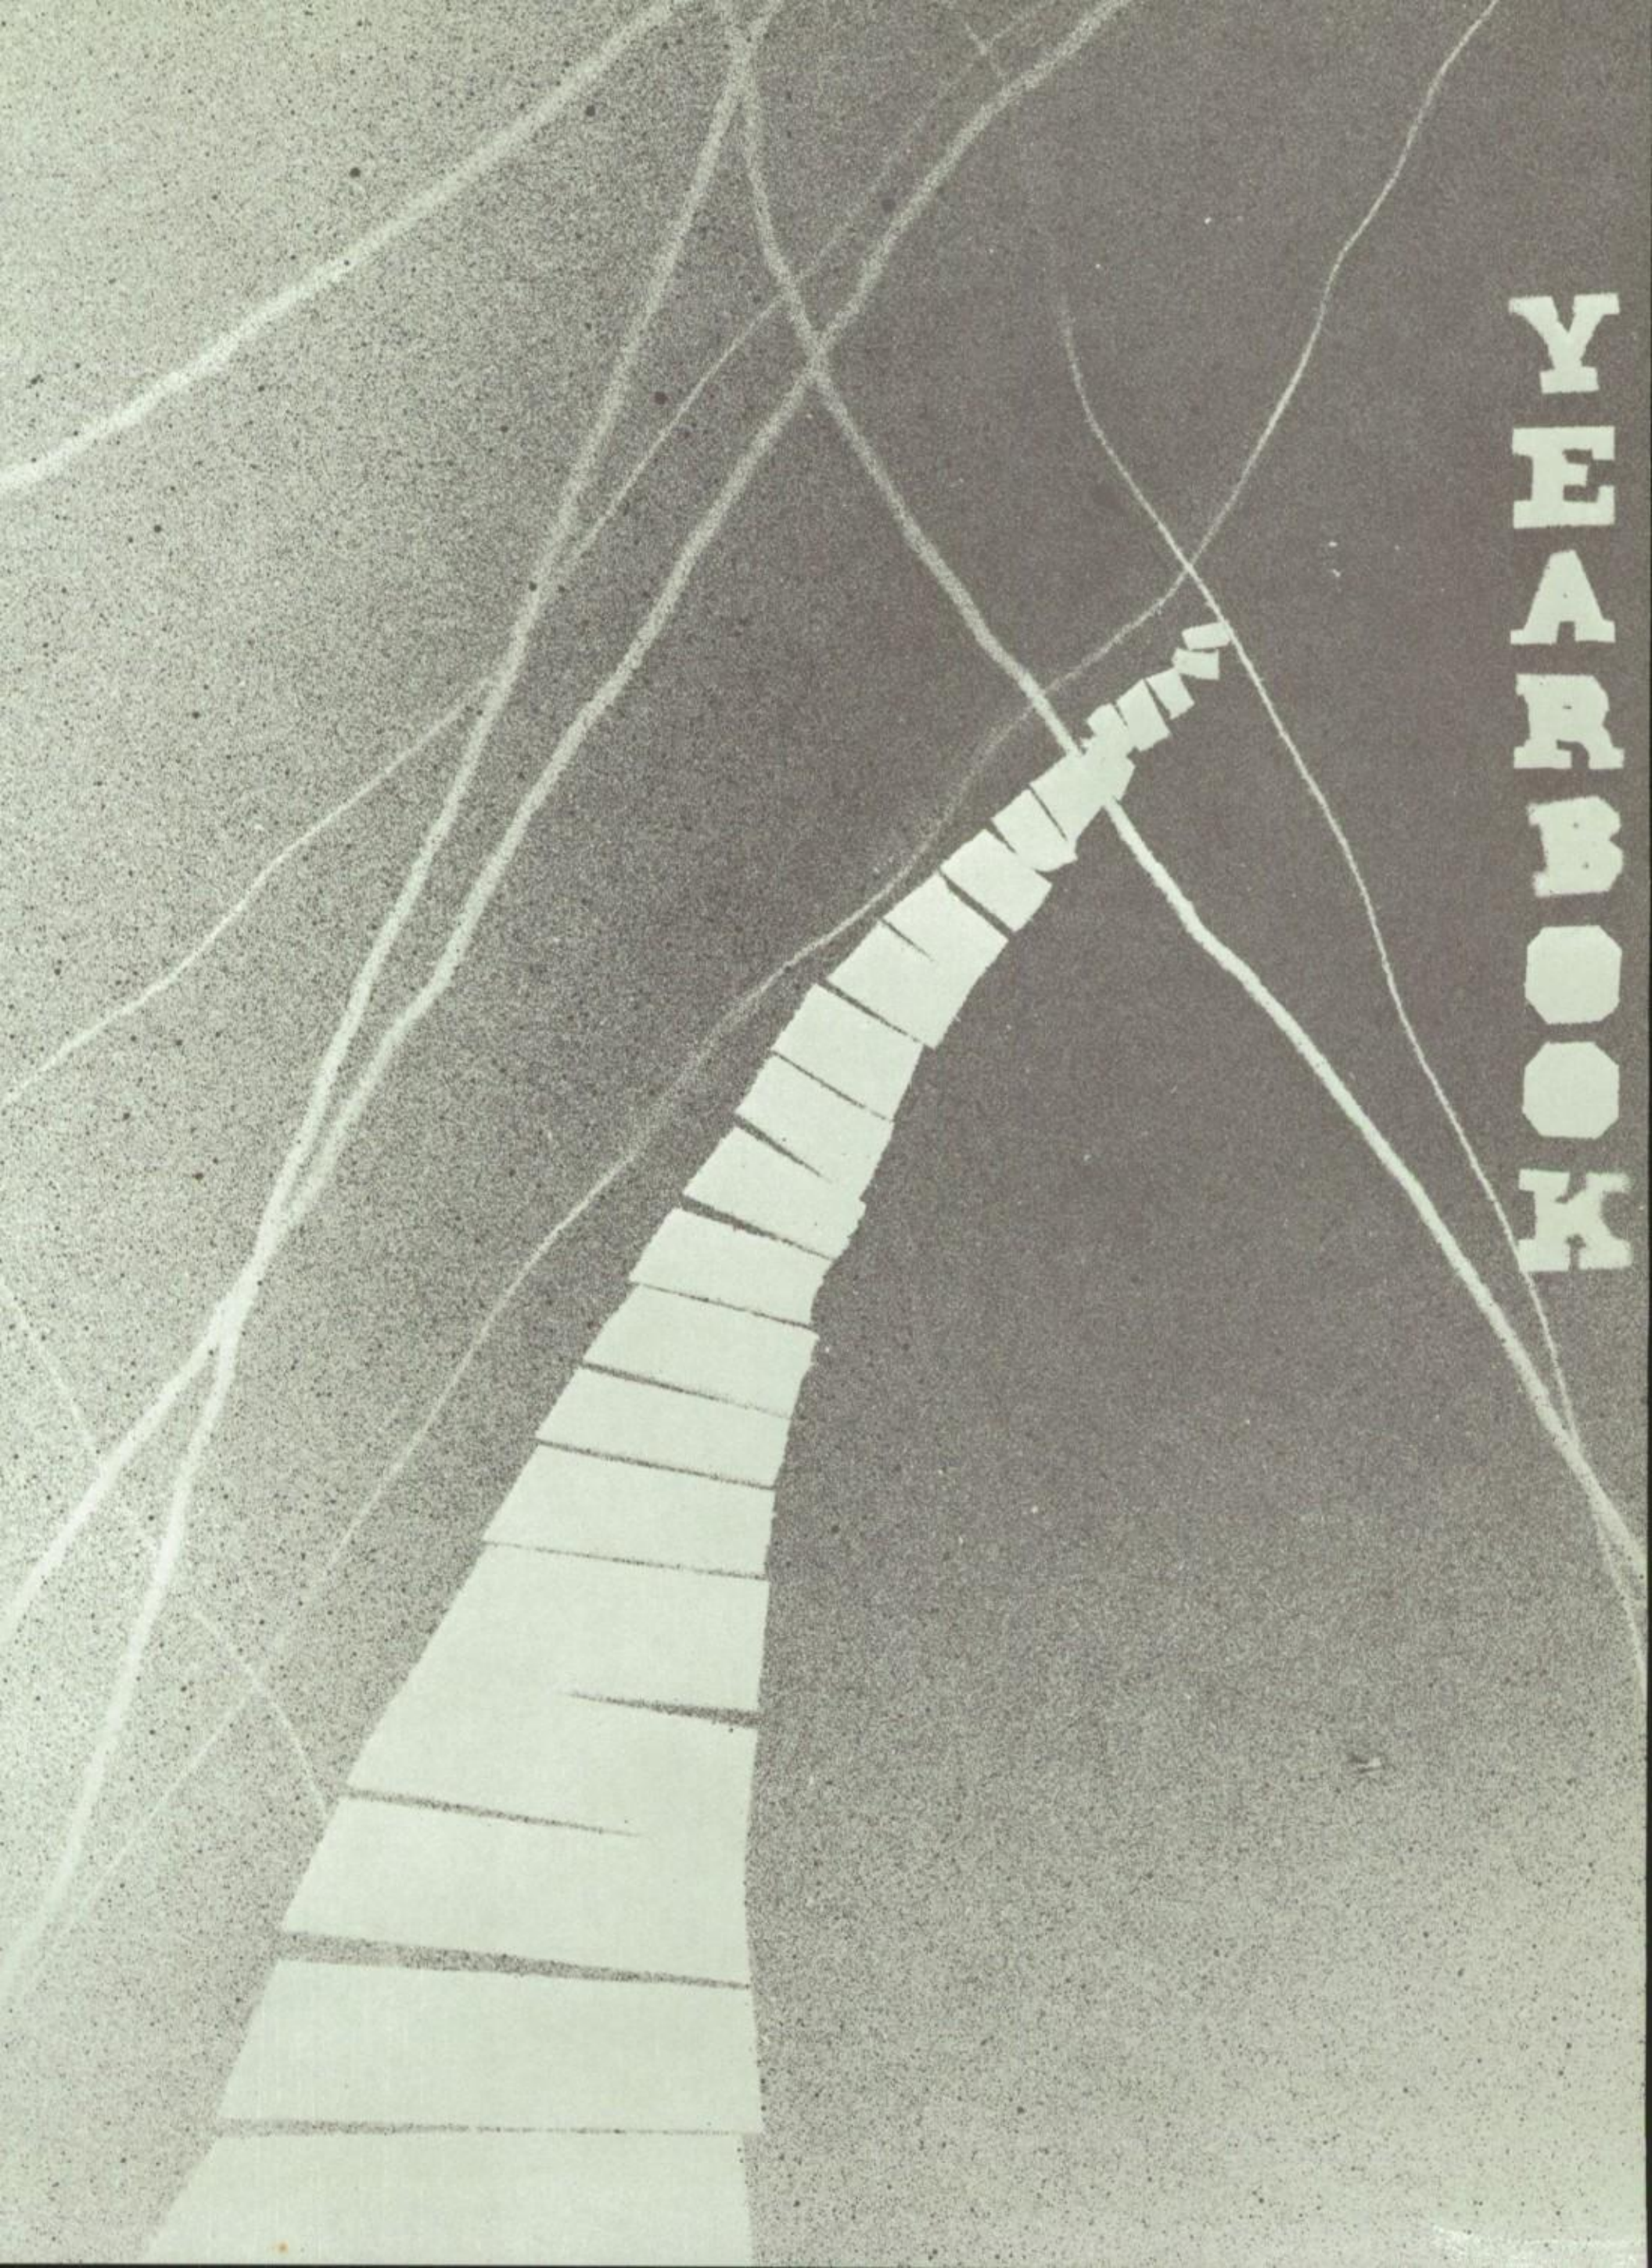

The Sophomore class waits impatiently to the goal of becoming juniors and finally seniors. So far they have completed their freshman year and are anxiously awaiting the end of the sophomore term. As they move closer and closer to the goal of the senior year; the sophomore class elected Gene Brunell as President, and as his fellow workers—Marlene Youngman as Vice-President, Bev Stevens as Secretary, and Janet Reuger as Treasurer.

Leaving their yesterdays behind them, the members of the junior class are waiting for the end of this year. After they finish their eleventh year the todays and tomorrows become increasingly important in each junior's life. Chosen to guide the juniors through the last year as underclassmen are Richard Doyle, President; Dirk Hightower, Vice-President; Eileen Schnider, Secretary; and Loren Colburn, Treasurer. The past years have become yesterdays for the juniors, memories stuffed in the back of their minds to be used as experience in future years.

Every class whether coming or leaving the freshman, sophomore, or junior years experiences phases in which the past is left behind and gates of tomorrow are opened by the roads of yesterday and today.

YEARBOOK

Co-Editors: Chris Curnow, Linda Bauer.

Being on yearbook is something that'll always stay with you. The problems, mistakes, and tiny victories all mass together into a whirlwind caricature of life. With the help of our faithful advisor and loyal staff members, another yearbook is finished. A lot of ideas, hard work, and hopes go into every yearbook, but the 1970 "EAGLE" seems to have taken everything it could to be able to be in its present form. Every fraction of emotion & work behind each yearbook mean nothing to the average student at Wayne Central, but to the small percentage of us on the yearbook staff, it will be long remembered.

In 1955, the charter was granted for the Wayne Central Chapter of the National Honor Society. Mr. Jay Taber was the first advisor of the chapter which contained fifteen members.

Today, under the guidance of Mrs. Margaret Bebernitz, over fifty students are members including President Paul Sass, Vice-President Dave Stites, Secretary Kathy Duell, and Treasurer Bob Mogray. Over the years, the student body has produced many capable and worthy members, each possessing the virtues of outstanding character, leadership, scholarship, and service.

STUDENT COMMITTEE

Row 1: E. Schneider, S. Judd.

Like everything else that changes through time, Student Council is no exception. It is no longer just a government, it has taken on various projects as well.

This year Student Council introduced Home Coming Week. This enables past graduates of Wayne Central to reunite and view our school through different eyes. Also, in meeting the needs for the present time, they revised the student handbook.

Every government needs leaders who are willing to express new ideas and who are willing to look towards the future. Our leaders, under the guidance of Mr. Miller, are President Andrea Poletis, Vice-President Loren Colburn, Secretary Diane Richardson, Treasurer Joan Doyle. This past year will leave evidence of the competence of our school government.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club is made of students who are interested in furthering their knowledge. Under the guidance and leadership of Mr. Cataldo, President Bernie LeViner, Vice-President Douglas Porray, Secretary Carol Enderlin, and Treasurer Bob Mogray, the members will build rockets. The Rocketry Division plans to compete against another school.

LIBRARY CLUB

Authors have written great stories, both fiction and non-fiction. To have these books available for the convenience of the students, the members of the Library Club work diligently during their free periods, under the guidance of their advisor, Miss Luke.

GERMAN CLUB

Instituted last year was another language course, German. The German Club was formed from the popularity of this language.

German Club, under the supervision of Herr Lemonovich, meets to see films, and slides. Lectures furnish information for the members. The group took several interesting and educational trips thanks to the leadership of President Wayne Schultz, Vice-President Ron Abraham, Secretary Faith Hoffman and Treasurer Sue Kunzer.

FRENCH CLUB

Education has broadened the scope of understanding other countries and their traditions. Wayne Central offers different language courses in its curriculum. French is one course in the educational program which expands its range of education into a club for students.

French Club brings some light on the French people and their customs. Intelligently planned meetings are set up by Madame Miles and the officers. The members experience such resources as films, slides, lectures, and travelogues. Each year the group takes different field trips.

The officers include President Donna Fisher, Secretary Debbie Canton, Treasurer Allyson Smith. Refreshment Chairman is Judy Furber.

FHA

The letters "FHA" stand for Future Homemakers of America. Even though in the future most homes will have modern conveniences, the girls in FHA will prove that this club was a great help to them by becoming a better housewife.

President Donna Wilcox, Vice President Gail Billings, Secretary Vicki Dee Dee, Treasurer Dawn Russel, and their advisor Mrs. Colburn led the girls in various projects. Among their activities were a fashion show, and the helping out of our soldiers in Viet Nam.

PROJECTION CLUB

As in the past, films further our understanding of history, sciences, languages, and other subjects. The audio-visual room contains overhead projectors and film strips which help enlighten our knowledge, as well as films with our projection club. Under the supervision of Mr. Gerald Slater, our school has provided the teachers with the necessary audio-visual materials. Glen Hienrich (Vice-President), Dawn Vance (Secretary-Treasurer), and the members of the club help Mr. Slater by showing films and doing various other things. Now and in the future, the projection club will be called upon to continue aiding our student body in a goal towards success.

As the first snowflakes fell to the ground in past years, happiness filled the hearts of Wayne skiers. This year, as usual, members of the Ski Club showed the same enthusiasm.

Each year more students become future skiers. The Ski Club teaches these new members along with old members the fundamentals and safety practices of skiing.

To practice what they learn, the club plans trips to Bristol, Swain and Song Mountain. Also the possibility of an overnight ski trip in the future is being looked into by President Herb Raymor, Vice-President Loren Colburn, Secretary Judy Beneway, and Treasurer Steve VanDerwerken under the guidance of Mr. LaChuisa, advisor of the club.

The play "Finders Creepers" written by Donald Payton and directed by the famous director Thomas A. DeRose was quoted by world renown critic Mr. Emory Faulks as "One of the funniest plays we've had performed on our stage in years."

Presented on November 21st, 1969 in the James A. Beneway High School Auditorium it ran a one night performance by fifteen Academy Award winners from the Class of 1970.

From the minute the curtain opened until the close, laughter roared throughout the entire theater. Yes, this play may very well one day be presented once again on Broadway with the original senior play cast.

MUSIC WRITE-UP

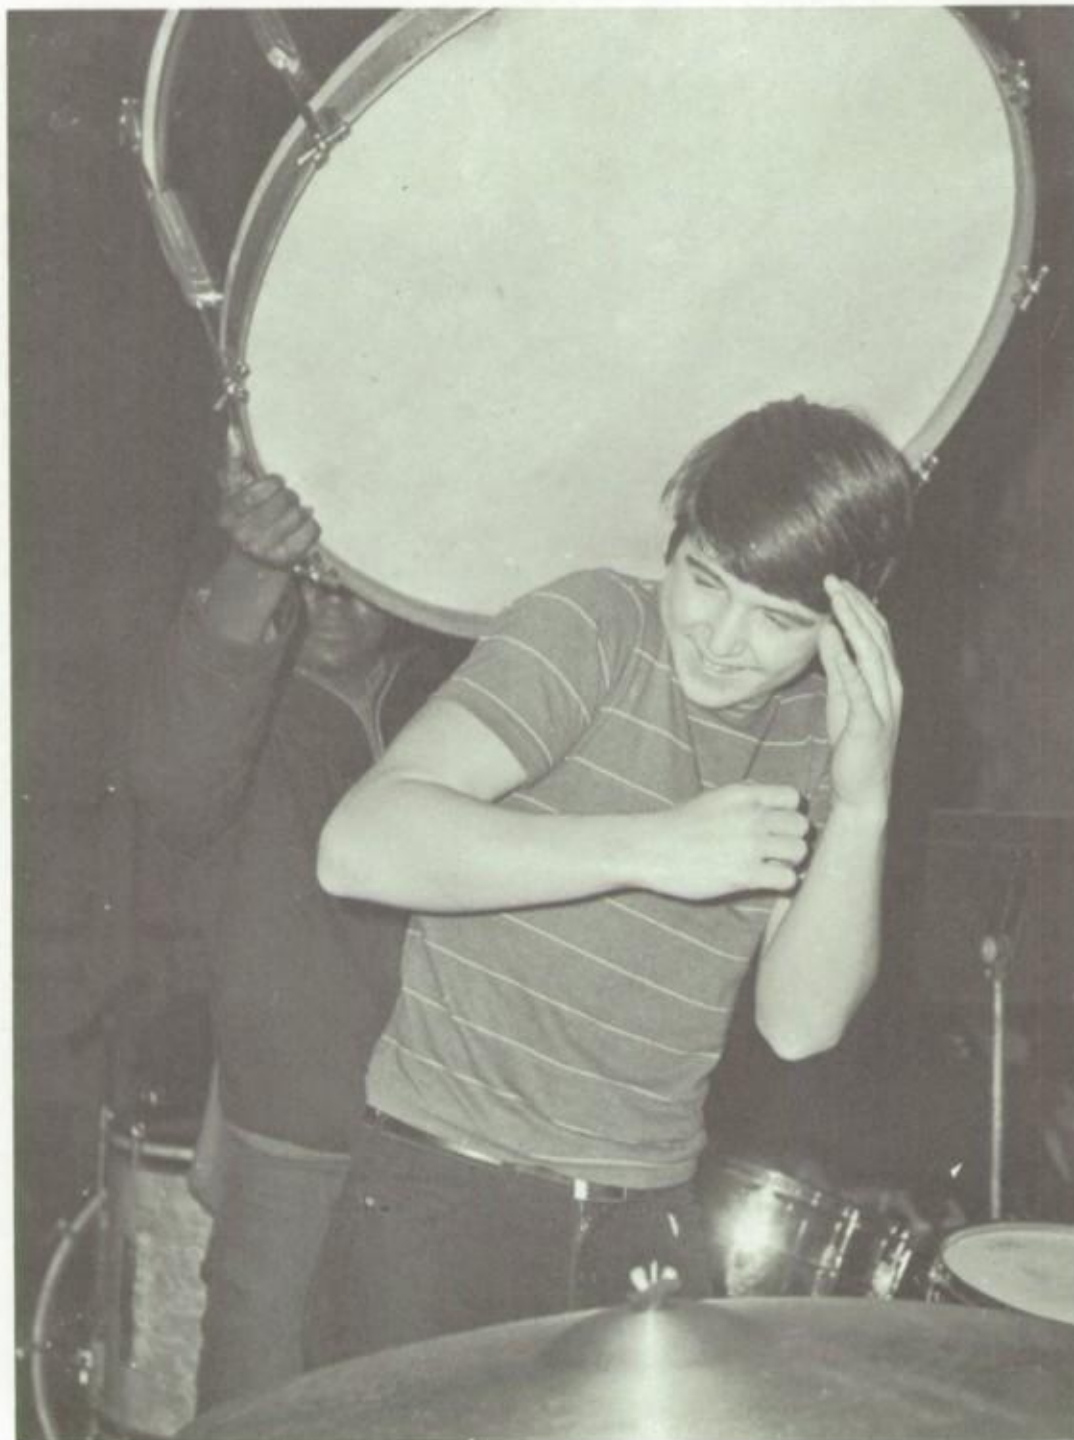

As in the past, music expresses a universal language. From classic to jazz to popular, the styles of music change but always transmit a message.

The Wayne Central Symphonic Band, under the direction of Gerald McClure, is subdivided into various bands. The Concert Band consists of about ninety students, who proudly wear the recently purchased uniforms. Among its activities are concerts, competition, the All-State program, and county festivals. Some of the members are in Pep Band, playing some of the most popular songs at basketball games and assembly programs. All of the students who participate will always remember the hard work, real pride, and rewards which are received from band.

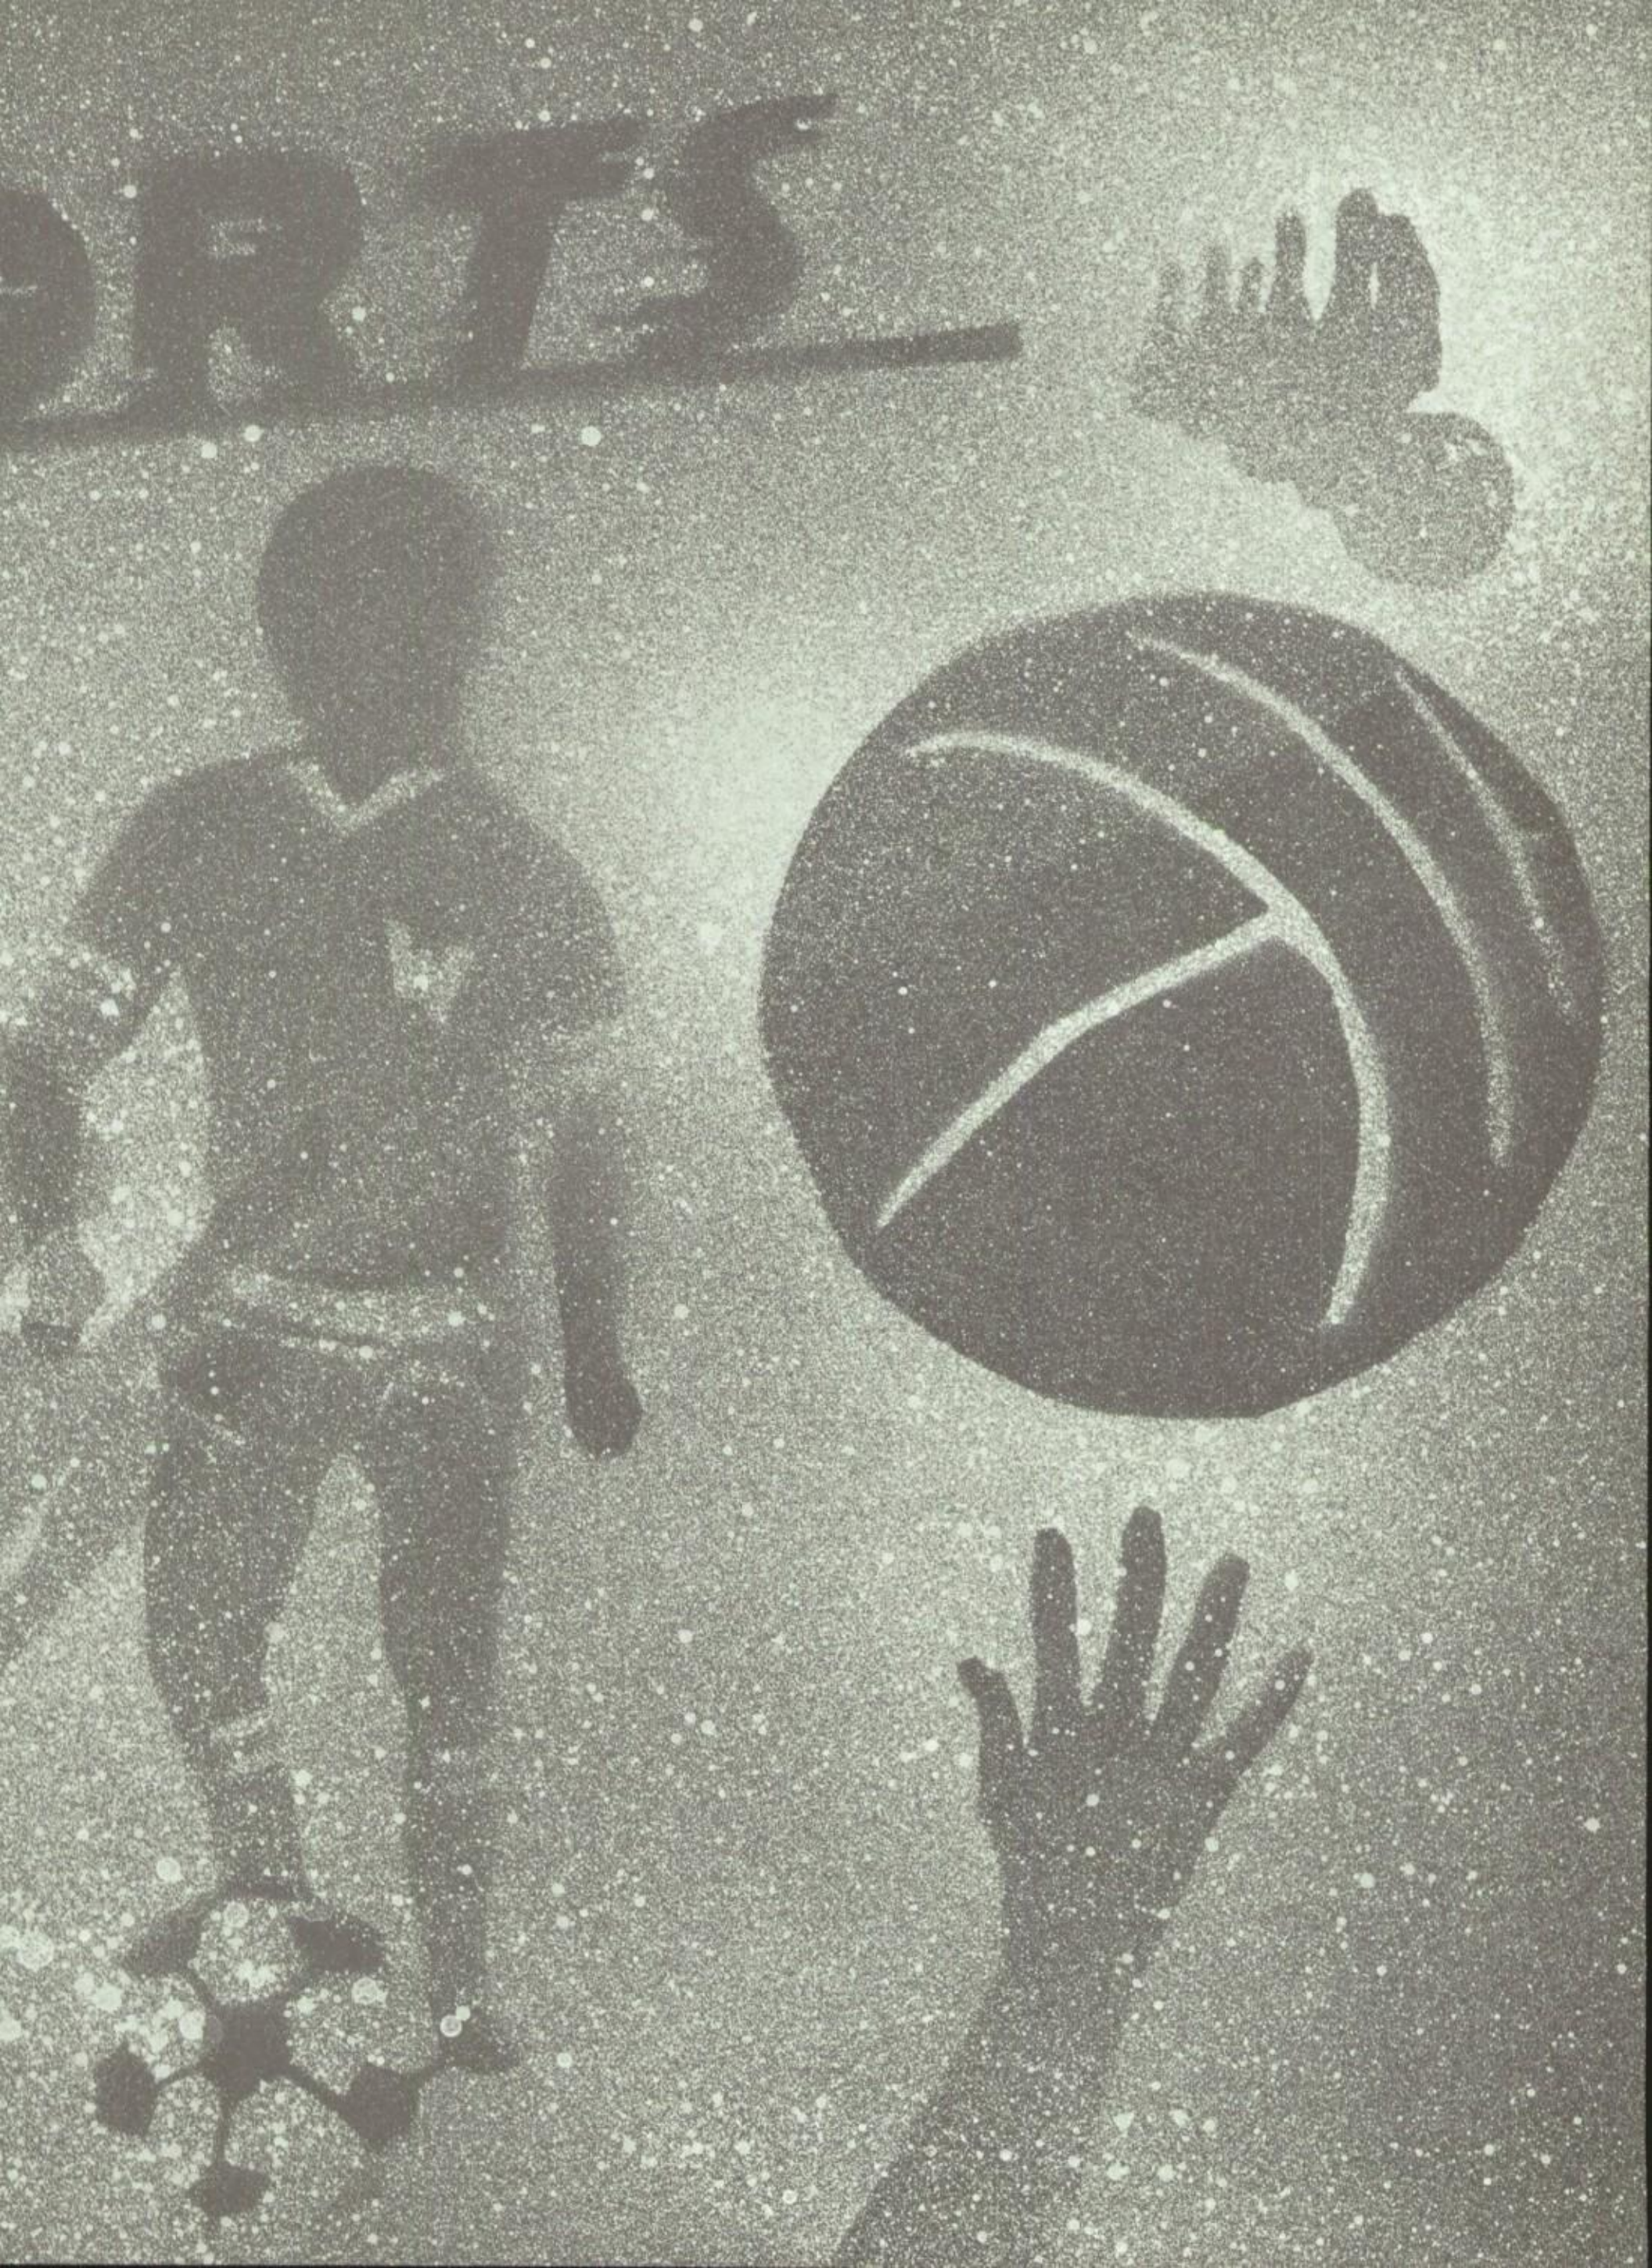

Under the direction of Mr. Weisenreder, the Senior Chorus offers an opportunity for students to express themselves through singing. As well as the Spring and Christmas concerts, competition and county festivals; a Broadway musical was presented. In addition to the Chorus, a Triple Trio and Baker's Dozen were formed. With the talented accompanists, Judy Hughes and Jackie Darron, and the officers of the chorus, a truly successful year was attained.

The music department of Wayne Central aids the students in expressing themselves. In Past, Present, and Future, music will never be surpassed.

SPORTS

"We're from Wayne Central and no one could be prouder . . ."

Just as sportsmanship flourished in ancient Greece the Wayne teams have again proved their ability to challenge any other team and walk away carrying the blue and gold proudly. This year the blue-gold power brought forth fame and glory to Wayne Central.

The Varsity Soccer team proved to be "No. 1" again this year, capturing the Section V Class B title for the fourth consecutive year. Coach Imhoff directed the boys along with Co-captains Mike Schneider and Tom Gentile to complete a totally successful season. The J.V. team under Mr. Churchill achieved outstanding performances on the field.

Under the coaching of Mr. Jack Keller, the Cross Country team kept pace with their opponents. The boys all ran hard for the victories achieved.

Varsity Basketball has been taken over by Mr. Imhoff. With a new approach to the season, the team hit it off with the determination that lasted through the whole season. Co-captains Mike Schnieder and Steve Agnello aided the team in outstanding displays of talent. In his first year as J.V. Coach, Mr. Stoner was quite successful.

Mr. Keller really had his hands full with the Varsity Wrestling team. The return of most of last year's wrestlers made the season a memorable one. Through many hours of practice the J.V. Wrestlers reflected the teaching of Coach McDonald on the mats.

The track was put into good use this spring during the track season. Not only was the season highlighted by running stars but also those who were in the field events.

The Wayne Bowlers added up the spares and strikes to total their abilities in a successful season. In competition the bowlers kept their cool under the tensions of each match with the help of Coach Biviano.

Hits and runs were inspired by coaches Stoner and LaChuisa in J.V. and Varsity Baseball. Agility and organization were the main factors that helped the team on the field. The efforts of each player was rewarding not only for the individual but also for the whole team.

Starting the season up to par, Mr. Hogan urged his golfers into excellent performances. The skills of these golfers reflected the teaching of their coach.

Mr. Weisendreder's Tennis team had their opponents bouncing all over the courts. The tennis players are expecting to bring many more victories to the school.

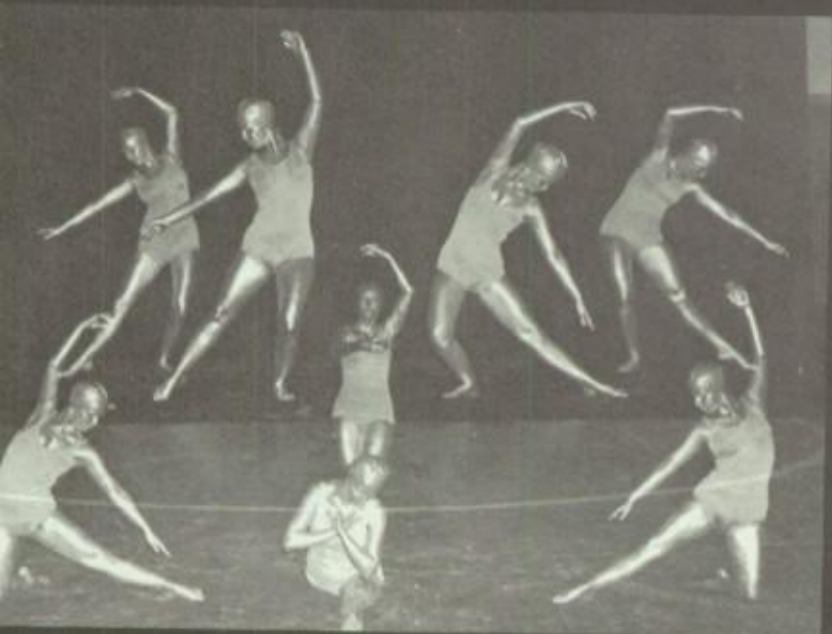

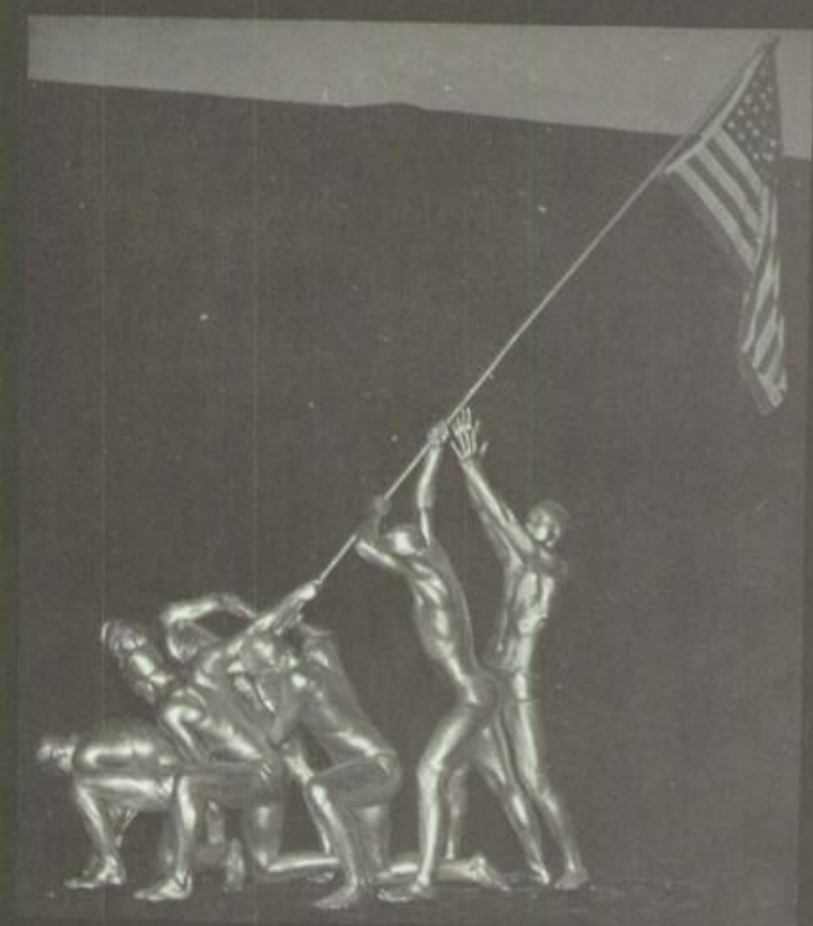

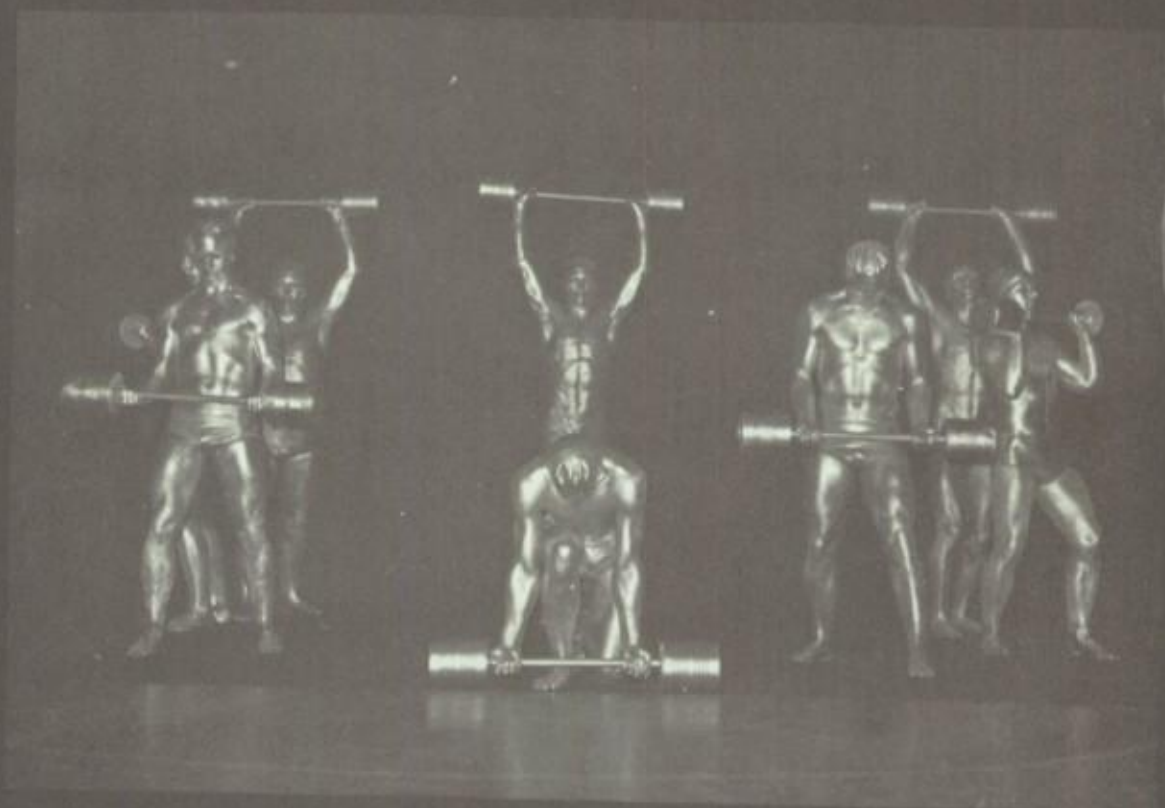

As always, cheerleading has stimulated the growth of school spirit. Steering the crowd in chants for the soccer and basketball teams were Captain Sandy Westerman and Co-captain Ginny Ginegaw for the Varsity squad and Diane Richardson, Captain along with Marlene Youngman, Co-captain of the J.V. squad.

At the end of the school year the Girls Leaders Club honors all of Wayne's Athletes at the Athletic Banquet also, President Wanda Buys, Vice-President Debbie Cantin, Intramural Chairman Kathy Riche-son, and Secretary-Treasurer Linda Heckle work with the Club to provide girls intramural program.

The Boys Leaders Club does their share of work at games by working at doors and selling refreshments. The boys also sponsor dances after games and other events under the leadership of President Bob Fenn, Vice-President Lyle Porray, and Secretary-Treasurer Dirk Hightower.

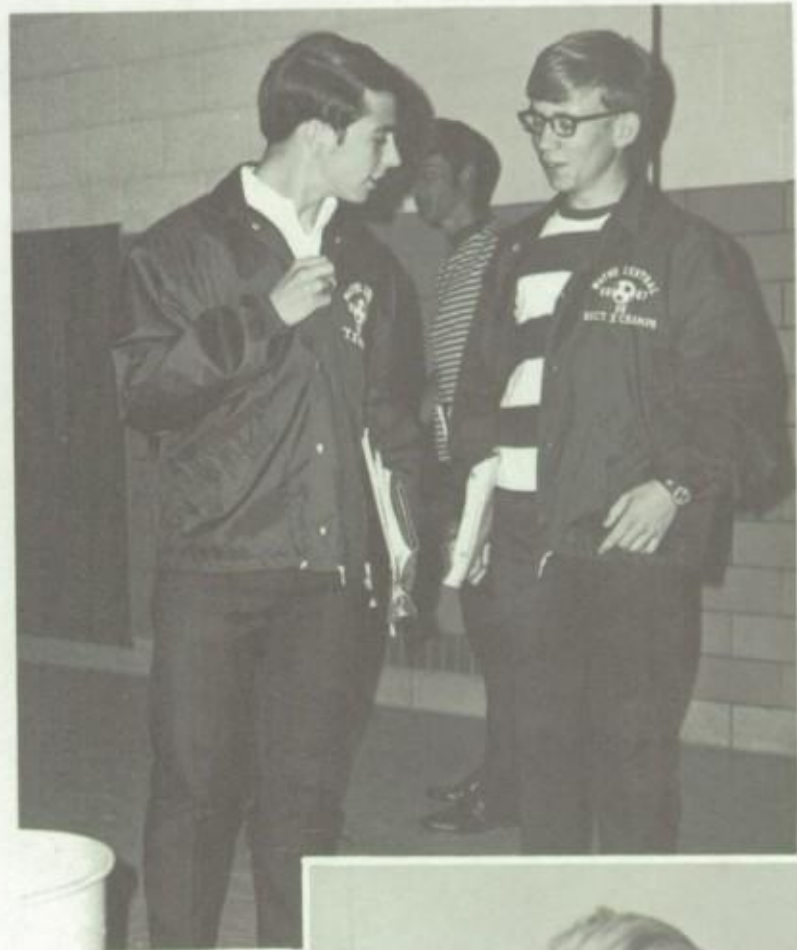

On the basis of this year's success the future of Wayne Sports is expected to be better than ever. Urged on by victories of Yesterday and Today, Tomorrow is to be promising.

Alla-ka-zam!

My feet are stuck!

[illegible]

[illegible]

Mr. Keller - (Jack)

In my entire "13" years of school, I have never in my life had a teacher as inspiring as you! In the three periods a day that I've had you, you have broadened my thinking to such an extent that it's unbelievable.

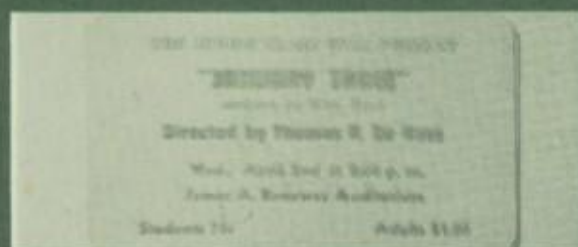

It's a shame that life just can't stand still so that I may enjoy your class and ~~presence~~^{presence} forever.

I realize that what I've written doesn't sound much like the little clown you had sitting in your class but it's sincerely how I feel.

I hope to see you some time in the near future!

You're a beautiful person!

Love -
Joanne
